

SATAKUNTA CULTURE TOUR

Our tour goes across Säkylä, through Eura to Harjavalta, Kokemäki and then back to Huittinen. On the way you can find beautiful sights and creative handicraft people in their workshops. Let's go and see!

Soap factory - Saippuapaja

Our culture tour starts at Saippuapaja (Soap Factory). It is an old, idyllic place nearby Huittinen, where you can buy different kind of soaps – or make soaps of your own in their courses.

Designpesula-shop and Jokisauna-sauna

Jokisauna-sauna and Designpesula-shop are located in Ruukinpuisto. For some decades ago Jokisauna was a sauna and a laundry for factory workers. Nowadays there is a café and design shop in Jokisauna.

All furniture and other things are designed by Alvar Aalto (1898-1976), the famous Finnish architect.

Designpesula-shop sells Finnish and foreign design.

The Emil Cedercreutz museum and cultural centre in Harjavalta

Baron Emil Herman Robert Cedercreutz (1879–1949) was a sculptor and a silhouette artist; his sculptures and reliefs can be seen in a number of public places around Finland. In his works Cedercreutz often depicted work and life in the rural areas.

The Temple of the Rural Spirit, an ethnological museum, was founded to increase appreciation for rural work. The museum was once the largest local history and culture museum in Finland.
